

ENTER THE DRAGON

Find out more about your health, wealth and career in 2012 - year of the dragon.

Geomancy, commonly known as Fengshui aims to forecast one's career, wealth, love and health. This Chinese system of astronomy helps to improve life by receiving positive energy from the environment. Using our zodiac sign, birth date and time, an experienced geomancer is able to predict what's on for the coming year.

The following are readings for the 12 zodiac signs for 2012:

RAT You are a good adviser but these words of gold are not observed in your personal life. You have the desire to attain power, which can make you petty and greedy. Being an opportunist, you are prone to gambling and go on a spending spree.

Be careful at your workplace when you communicate with colleagues. Misunderstanding may arise. Keep a low profile and stay humble. There is also a good chance to fall in love and find that special someone in your life. The Golden Lock Star will bring you ample wealth opportunities to fulfill your dreams. Be cautious when being entangled in legal lawsuits. Remember to read the fine prints and do not to be arrogant.

OX Those who are born in the year of ox exhibit many positive traits- hardworking, self-assured, smart, good tempered and helpful but sometimes can be misinterpreted as being stubborn and traditional. They are attached to their families and recognized their responsibilities to the family members. Being steadfast and dependable will pave the way to influence and power.

This is a year of opportunities. There will be influential and respectable people who will take you under their wings. For those who are in a relationship, there is a likelihood of gossips, disputes and unkind remarks. These will develop a sense of insecurity. Remain calm and think before your next move. Manage your stress level well and accept it as part of your life. Engage in activities that allow you to rest and recharge.

TIGER You are a natural born leader who likes activity and action. Your spontaneity and exuberance is highly infectious.

There will be travelling opportunities and chances to expand your contacts and networks. Couples should be careful as emotional turmoil may set in. Replace the anger with love and understanding. Learn how to be more tolerant and calm. Pay extra attention when you wish to invest. Be prudent and handle your finances well. It is advisable to get more opinions before stepping into any financial commitments. You should also take care of your health and seek treatment early for any sickness. Avoid heavy smoking and drinking.

RABBIT You are peace loving, innovative and a natural born businessman.

There will be hiccups in your career and you should focus on the 'real work'. Do not quit easily and persist on. Every difficulty is an opportunity in disguise. Avoid disputes that affect interpersonal relationship. It is important to start the year by establishing good rapport with others. Your indecisiveness will lead to missed opportunities.

DRAGON You have a sharp, instinctual and creative mind. Although you are easily offended, headstrong and hasty, your shrewd personality and sleigh-of-hand skills can make things done in an instant.

Be cautious of all matters and plan carefully to ward off obstacles. Do not let setbacks affect you. Try to avoid all high-risk investment. Always think positive as failures can be put to good use. This is the year for academic venture. You have to be frugal and be more selective with your expenditures. There will be occurrence of insomnia and migraines. Stay level headed and be careful while driving or travelling.

SNAKE You are critical and undertake decision often without consultation from others. Although you are smart and sensitive to those around you, you can be mercenary when offended.

With a stable profession and personal wealth, this year has a positive outlook. Obstacles will be cleared and career will continue to rise. It is also timely to strike business deals with others. There will also be happy events such as marriages or new family members. Avoid lending money unless you are prepared to lose it. Always think twice before any decision is made. Your health prospect is not as good as last year. Reinforce it with balanced diet and regular exercise.

HORSE People born under this sign are often characterised as happy, positive, independent and well-liked. They are able to manage their wealth and have an alluring personality.

You are able to pull through all difficulties at work and achieve what you want. Try to keep track your love life as this can cost you trouble. It is important to place ample trust in your partner for long lasting relationship. You should also manage your finances well as they can be taken away from you just as easily you have achieved them. Avoid dangerous activities such as rock climbing or deep sea sports and visit your doctor regularly.

GOAT You are gentle, compassionate, amiable and generous. On the flip side, you can be indecisive, gullible and dislike criticism. There is an artistic inclination and flair to run business. The emotional side of you can distract you from the truth.

Although the readings for your career in year 2012 may not be ideal, there will be female benefactors to help you survive difficulties at work. Guard yourself against people whose only aim is pull a fast one on you. It is important to establish good rapport with others and learn to be more tolerant and calm. This is the year to spend more time with your family and friends. Prevent any unnecessary spending and do not dabble in speculations and gambling. You have to manage your cash flow well.

MONKEY You are extremely intelligent, witty, manipulative, competitive, and a fast learner. Challenges are what make you motivated. People born under this sign have good interpersonal and social skills but can be selfish, cunning, jealous and egoistic.

There will be loads of opportunities and be sure to seize every one of them. It will bring you great achievements and financial gains. Be careful when dealing with legal documents and read the fine prints before signing. Control your emotions and do not let it upset your relationship. Do not take unnecessary financial risk and tide the year with humbleness and prudence. Make time to relax and spend time with family and friends.

ROOSTER There is no lack of admirers for those born under this sign. You are very routine, regimental, self-assured and hardworking. You need to be identified and be at the centre of attention.

There will be a promotion and increment for you. Stay motivated and accomplished more at work as this will bring you favourable attention. Avoid any undesirable attention and be faithful to your partner. Do not be rash and ignorant in your financial investments. Make time for a vacation and recharge yourself.

DOG You have a strong sense of justice and a shoulder for others to cry on; friends can always rely on you when they are in trouble.

To excel at work, stay strong and do not let setbacks affect you. Refrain from making huge investments and learn to be conservative. It is beneficial to look out for obstacles at work and work in a slow and steady pace. Cherish your loved ones and communicate tactfully to avoid disputes. It is important to trust your partner and compromise when necessary. Watch what you eat and manage your schedule well. Do not be overwhelmed by stress.

PIG You are easily contented, not calculative and honest. However, you can be stubborn and very dependent.

Your hard work will receive due rewards and opportunities are limitless for you. There is a high chance for promotion and pay raise. Stay motivated constantly. For singles, there is possibility of meeting that special someone. Be more sociable and open up your doors. Couple will be ready for marriage. Insomnia and migraines may be a manifestation of work stress. Take a slower pace in life

To better understand your outlook for year 2012, seek advice from an experienced Fengshui consultant. The consultant will be able to analyse your birth data and provide a personalised and accurate reading. ■

ADELINA PANG | CEO & Principal Consultant

ADELINA PANG FENG SHUI CONSULTANCY PTE LTD

7 Temasek Boulevard #44-01 Suntec Tower I Tel: 6430 6766 Fax: 6382 0334. www.adelinapang.com